MAXIMUM RAWA2

At Amatory, our philosophy is as natural as our products. Our reputation as a caring company means we put consumer products safety as our top priority and always seek to use the best quality raw materials.

All of our products meet the rigorous scientific standards of our multi-steps safety assurance process. They also meet or exceed U.S and E.U cosmetic ingredient safety guidelines, or whichever is stricter when they differ.

For that matter, we only partner with suppliers who enforce these required standards and principles.

Our delightful range of personal care products are made with the best natural ingredients, taken only from green renewable resources.

We use the finest and most precious plants extracts and we do not use harsh preservatives or any animal ingredients.

Our products are dermatologically tested for innocuity and skin compatibility.
